Now! The Amazing Facts about

BALDNESS

...AND WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT

The following facts are brought to the attention of the public because of a widespread belief that nothing can be done about hair loss. This belief has no basis in medical fact. Worse, it has condemned many men and women to needless baldness by their neglect to treat certain accepted causes of hair loss.

There are six principal types of hair loss, or alopecia, as it is known in medical terms:

1. Alopecia from diseases of the scalp
2. Alopecia from other diseases or from an improper functioning of the body
3. Alopecia of the aged (senile baldness)
4. Alopecia areata (loss of hair in patches)
5. Alopecia of the young (premature baldness)
6. Alopecia at birth (congenital baldness)

Senile, premature and congenital alopecia cannot be helped by anything now known to modern science. Alopecia from improper functioning of the body requires the advice and treatment of your family physician.

BUT MANY MEDICAL AUTHORITIES NOW BELIEVE A SPECIFIC SCALP DISEASE IS THE MOST COMMON CAUSE OF HAIR LOSS.

This disease is called Seborrhea and can be broadly classified into two clinical forms with the following symptoms:

1. DRY SEBORRHEA: The hair is dry, lifeless, and without gloss. A dry flaky dandruff is usually present with accompanying itching. Hair loss is considerable and increases with the progress of this disease.

2. OILY SEBORRHEA: The hair and scalp are oily and greasy. The hair is slightly sticky to the touch and has a tendency to mat together. Dandruff takes the form of head scales. Scalp is usually itchy. Hair loss is severe with baldness as the end result.

Many doctors agree that to NEGLECT these symptoms of DRY and OILY SEBORRHEA is to INVITE BALDNESS.

Seborrhea is believed to be caused by three germ organisms — staphylococcus albus, pytiorporum ovale, and acnes bacillus.

These germs attack the sebaceous gland causing an abnormal working of this fat gland. The hair follicle, completely surrounded by the enlarged diseased sebaceous gland, then begins to atrophy. The hair produced becomes smaller and smaller until the hair follicle dies. Baldness is the inevitable result. (See illustration.)

But seborrhea can be controlled, particularly in its early stages. The three germ organisms believed to cause seborrhea, can and should be eliminated before they destroy your normal hair growth.

A post-war development, Comate Medicinal Formula kills these three germ organisms on contact. Proof of Comate's germ-killing properties has been demonstrated in laboratory tests recently conducted by one of the leading testing laboratories in America. (Complete report on file and copies are available on request.)

When used as directed, Comate Medicinal Formula controls seborrhea—stimulates the flow of blood to the scalp—helps stop scalp itch and burn—improves the appearance of your hair and scalp—helps STOP HAIR LOSS due to seborrhea. Your hair looks more attractive and alive.

You may safely follow the example of thousands who first were skeptical, then curious, and finally decided to avail themselves of Comate Medicinal Formula.

A Few of the Many Grateful Expressions By Users of Comate Medicinal Formula

"My hair was coming out for years and I tried everything. Nothing stopped it until I tried Comate. Now my hair has stopped coming out. It looks so much thicker. My friends have noticed my hair and they all say it looks so much better."
—Mrs. R.E.J., Stevenson, Ala.

"Your hair formula got rid of my dandruff; my head does not itch any more. I think it is the best of all of the formulas I have used."
—E.E., Hamilton, Ohio.

"Your formula is everything you claim it to be and the first 10 days trial freed me of a very bad case of dry seborrhea."
—J.E.M., Long Beach, Calif.

"I do want to say that just within five days I have obtained a great improvement in my hair. I do want to thank you and the Comate Laboratories for producing such a wonderful and amazing formula."
—M.M., Johnstown, Pa.

"I have found almost instant relief. My itching has stopped with one application."
—J.N., Stockton, Calif.

"My hair looks thicker, not falling out like it used to. Will not be without Comate in the house."
—R.W., Lonsdale, R. I.

"I haven't had any trouble with dandruff since I started using Comate."
—L.W.W., Galveston, Tex.

"This formula is everything if not more than you say it is. I am very happy with what it's doing for my hair."
—T.J., Las Cruces, New Mexico

"I find it stops the itch and retards the hair fall. I am thankful for the help it has given me in regard to the terrible itching."
—R.B.L., Philadelphia, Pa.

"The bottle of Comate I got from you has done my hair so much good. My hair has been coming out and breaking off for about 21 years. It has improved so much."
—Mrs. J.E., Lisbon, Ga.

Today these benefits are available to you just as they were to these sincere men and women when they first read about Comate. If your hair is thinning, over-dry or over-oily—if you are troubled with dandruff with increasing hair loss—you may well be guided by the laboratory tests and the experience of thousands of grateful men and women.

Remember, if your hair loss is due to Seborrhea, Comate CAN and MUST help you. If it is due to causes beyond the reach of Comate Medicinal Formula, you have nothing to lose because our GUARANTY POLICY assures the return of your money unless delighted. So why delay when that delay may cause irreparable damage to your hair and scalp. Just mail the coupon below.

"The Nasty Hold-Up Man"

"I went shopping with my aunt yesterday for furniture," complained Detective Al Norton of Special Squad to his buddy, Ben Egan, "and it was more work than tailing a suspect. We went to three department stores, two specialty shops and a wholesale furniture place. It ought to be simple. A chair is something in which you sit. A bed is something in which you sleep. And you eat from a table. But they got all kinds of styles. Modernistic, Provincial, Futuristic, and I think something after a French king called Louis XIV. And then they got trick furniture. There was something on which you put your feet. Presto, off comes the cover and it turns into a bed. Maybe it takes a woman to understand those things. My aunt buys some chairs, nice fabric and not too expensive. Then right away she orders slip covers. She wants to cover up the nice fabric so it won't get soiled. Why not use it until it gets worn and then cover it up? My aunt told me to wait until I get married and then I won't ask such fool questions. Now I ask you, Ben, is getting furniture simple or complicated?"

"Simple," replied Ben Egan using just one word.

"Why?" demanded Al Norton.

"Because my wife does the selecting and the buying and all I got to do is pay the bills," pointed out Ben.

The phone rang and Al Norton answered it. No need to continue on the subject of purchasing and choosing furniture.

"Chief Edward Mirkus wants us in his office at once. Says there was a holdup of an uptown five-and-dime store on Main Street twenty minutes ago, just before the store opened for the day's business."

The police chief was proud of the two members of his Special Squad. They could handle anything from ordinary routine matters to the toughest assignment. The door to his office was opened and they walked in.

"Herman Schlossberg from the 29th Precinct is there. He sent in the message. You two get out there immediately. Store is located at 345 Main Street. I want you to crack this case at once. Otherwise you know what happens. A bunch of punks read about it and think they can do the same. That means a wave of store holdups and somebody gets killed. So nip it at once."

Twenty minutes later the two detectives were inside the five-and-dime store. An assistant manager had opened the door of the store to sweep out some refuse at 8:30 A.M. and the two holdup men entered. They were armed with revolvers and tied up the assistant manager, the manager, and a woman cashier.

"They took $3,800 in large and small bills," related Sam McCarthy, store manager. "Also fifty dollars in dimes and quarters. The change was in wrappers of the Third National Bank. And they also had the imprint number of this store which is A-65. They took us to the rear and tied us up. Then they ripped out the phone. I untied myself and ran out looking for a cop. I saw Officer Schlossberg on the corner and he called headquarters at once."

"Can you give us a description of the hold-up men?" asked Detective Norton.

"You bet I can," replied the assistant manager with what sounded like glee in his voice. "And I'm not the kind of fellow who will tell you the holdup men were just average guys. One was about 26. He was the bigger of the two, I would say 5 foot 10. He had a big nose. Two of his front teeth were sticking out. Wore a dark blue suit. The other was a small guy. About 5 foot 5. He was older, I think about forty. Had a small scar on the left side of his upper lip. He wore gray pants and a brown coat. What a rotten color combination."

"Suppose we take you down to headquarters and show you some mug shots a little later," suggested Detective Egan. "Meanwhile we're going outside and see if anybody saw those holdup men."

The two detectives walked outside the store with Patrolman Schlossberg.

"What a bad break for me," moaned the officer. "Had I been here when they tried that holdup, I could have gotten myself a promotion. Bet the chief would have made me a third grade detective."

"You might also have gotten yourself a one way ride to the morgue," suggested Ben Egan. "You figure you are a better shot than those two armed mugs. We'll let you know when we catch them."

A thin frail old woman wearing a black dress and a white hat came up to Detective Egan.

"Are you what they call plain-clothes men?" she asked.

"We're detectives, Madam," replied Ben Egan.

"And are you looking for the two holdup men who robbed that store?" she continued.

"We are," replied Detective Norton. "Can you tell us anything that will help to find them."

"Better than that," smiled the old lady. "I can tell you the name of the smaller man and where he lives."

For a moment the two detectives were puzzled. It was almost too good to be true. There are cranks who always want to put in their two cents. And now and then a citizen turns up with real solid information.

"How is it you know the smaller of the two men?" asked Ben Egan.

"My name is Mrs. Marie Reno," replied the old lady. "I am a widow. Once the Reno family owned most of this city. I have a small notebook. When people are nice to me I take their names and addresses. I will leave a lot of money in my will. When a person is rude, I find out the identity of such a mean man or woman. I will leave those people only one cent in my will."

"Then this man was rude," figured Al Norton, "since you are willing to tell us about him."

"Very rude," replied Mrs. Reno. "Last week I tried to cross Concord Street. I asked him to help me across. He told me to go someplace where it is always warm. I followed him. He went into a bar. When he left I gave the bartender two dollars for that man's name and address."

"Just give it to us and we'll see you get all the credit in case we get those men," said Ben Egan.

Shorty Dimmers was counting bills on a table when he heard a knock on the door. It wasn't his partner's knock for Joe Lenny would knock, one, one two and then one, two, three, four.

"Who the blazes is there?" he demanded.

"Contractor," replied a voice. "We got to fix the wall outside your front window."

So Shorty Dimmers opened the door and found himself facing a powerful looking revolver.

"Play rough and you'll never play again," warned Detective Norton.

"I'm not looking for trouble," replied Dimmers.

On the table they found wrappers in which the coins had once reposed.

"Your partner must be taking the change around to turn it into big bills," suggested Al Norton. "We'll remain here until he returns."

An hour later Joe Lenny gave the code knock on the door and Shorty Dimmers followed orders.

"Come in."

He too surrendered without argument. The haul included two toy guns which caused Patrolman Schlossberg, who had accompanied the two detectives to smile.

"I would have won in a gun fight," was all he remarked.

Three days later, Shorty Dimmers sent for the two detectives.

"I just read in the papers how we really got caught. Doesn't make sense. I'm nasty to an old dame and for this I'll get five years. A rich old dame. Doesn't make sense."

"Doesn't make sense," repeated Detective Al Norton, "why you two fellows turned to crime. For that you each get five years."

When the two detectives left the saddened holdup men, Al Norton remarked.

"Think we should have told them that the old dame was half starving. Didn't have a cent to her name. Thought she was still rich."

"No," replied Ben Egan. "At least her future is assured. The newspapers and the store are raising a fund for her. I guess in the long run being nice pays and being nasty is a bad deal."

ROOKIE COP

OFFICER BARTON CALLED IN FROM THE PRECINCT BOX NEAR THE BIG LAUNDRY... THE DECK LIEUTENANT TOLD HIM TO GO... AND EAT....

SO YOU'RE NEW ON THE BEAT, EH? WHY DON'T YOU SIT IN A BACK BOOTH AND TAKE A NAP? IT'S A LONG NIGHT.

NO, THANKS, I'VE GOT A LOT OF GROUND TO COVER ON THIS BEAT.

THERE MIGHT BE A HOLDUP ON THE OTHER END OF MY BEAT IF I DOPED OFF IN HERE. YOU WOULDN'T LIKE IT IF IT HAPPENED TO YOU.

SAM KNEW HIS BEAT BETTER THE NEXT NIGHT... NO DETAIL WAS TOO SMALL FOR HIM TO NOTICE, WONDER ABOUT AND REMEMBER...

THAT TRUCK CAME BY ABOUT THIS TIME LAST NIGHT TOO, AND THE BOY IN THE PARKED CAR SEEMS TO BE INTERESTED IN IT.

YOU WORK NIGHTS TOO, HUH? IT TAKES A GALLON OF COFFEE TO KEEP ME AWAKE! IT WAS JUST GOING TO HAVE A CUP.

AS SOON AS I DROP THE COLE LECTORS OFF, I'LL JOIN YOU!

SAM DIDN'T MIND WASTING TIME OVER HIS COFFEE THIS TIME... HE WAS A COP DOING HIS JOB....

I'M GLAD TO BE RID OF THAT MONEY! I SWEAT EVERY TIME I HAVE A LOT OF CASH.

I DON'T BLAME YOU, DO MANY PEOPLE KNOW YOU HAVE IT?

NO, WE JUST STARTED THIS SYSTEM. I DON'T LIKE IT EITHER.

WELL, I'LL TRY TO BE AROUND WHEN YOU'RE DUE IN THE MORNING!

ON THE THIRD LATE TOUR OF THE SWING, BARTON NOTICED THE CAR AGAIN....

WHAT'S THE MATTER? I'M NOT DOING ANYTHING WRONG!

YOU ARE TILL YOU TURN YOUR LIGHTS ON, MISTER! YOU GOT TROUBLES? SOMETHING ON YOUR MIND?

I-I'M ALL RIGHT, OFFICER! I'LL TURN MY LIGHTS ON!

JUST A MINUTE, SIR, I'D LIKE TO LOOK AT YOUR DRIVER'S LICENSE!

IT WAS ONLY A HUNCH-- BUT BARTON WAS DISAPPOINTED TO FIND THE DRIVER'S LICENSE APPARENTLY IN ORDER....

SEEMS TO BE ALL RIGHT, BE CAREFUL IN THE FUTURE!

YOU BET I WILL, I DON'T WANT TO TALK TO COPS ANY MORE THAN I HAVE TO!

HE'S A WRONG GUY IF I EVER SAW ONE, MAYBE I SHOULD'VE GIVEN HIM A TICKET FOR DRIVING WITHOUT LIGHTS, AND MAYBE I SHOULDN'T!

IT WAS THE FOURTH NIGHT OF HIS SWING ON THE LATE TOUR WHEN SAM FOUND HIMSELF IN THE SQUEEZE... HIS PAL IN THE PARKED CAR WAS THERE AGAIN-- WITH COMPANY...

BARTON REPORTING, SIR! WOULD IT BE ALL RIGHT IF I MADE UP MY NEXT REPORT FROM THIS BOX, SIR?

YOU KNOW THE RULES, BARTON, RING IN FROM THE SCHEDULED PHONE!

THE TIE-UP MUST BE WITH THE LAUNDRY TRUCK AND THE COLLECTIONS THE DRIVER MAKES FROM THE STORES. AFTER I REPORT IN AT THIS END OF THE BEAT I'LL GET BACK THERE IN A HURRY!
